

School of Medicine, University College Dublin

May 30th, 2017

Time	Topic	Speaker
10:00–10:10	Introduction. Presentation of participants	All participants
10:10–10:50	The epidemiological situation of HIV infection in Ireland. Status and possible consequences.	Professor Patrick Mallon
10:50–11:30	The cascade of care in Ireland and in Europe	Professor Patrick Mallon
11:30–12:00	Coffee break	All participants
12:00–12:40	Approaches for estimation of real number of HIV infected people and estimation of ART demands	Professor Patrick Mallon
12:40–13:30	Questions and Answers	All participants
13:30–14:30	Lunch	All participants
14:30–17:00	Organization of medical care to patients with HIV infection in a clinic. Standards of care. Visit to the Clinic, discussion of patient's pathway with HIV infection and HIV/HCV co-infection	All participants
17:00–18:00	Questions and Answers after the visit to the clinic	All participants

May 31th, 2017

Time	Topic	Speaker
10:00–11:00	Analysis of complex clinical cases of patients with HIV infection (practical discussion)	All participants
11:00–11:45	Modern guidelines for HAART use in HIV-1 infected persons. General characteristics of ART in Ireland. When and how to start ART.	Professor Patrick Mallon
11:45–12:15	Coffee break	All participants
12:15–13:00	Efficacy and safety of modern NNRTI. Current usage in Europe. Interactive session with clinical cases.	Professor Patrick Mallon All participants
13:00–13:30	Questions and Answers	All participants
13:30–14:30	Lunch	All participants
14:30–17:00	Visit to the Clinic: - Metabolic complications of subjects with HIV, real life management - simplification strategy	All participants
17:00–18:00	Questions and Answers after the visit to the clinic	All participants

June 1st, 2017

Time	Topic	Speaker
10:00–11:00	Multidisciplinary approach for HIV patients management. Overview of the day 2.	Professor Patrick Mallon
11:00–11:45	Discussion of current Russian practice. Possibility and necessity of Multidisciplinary approach for patients management: beyond infectious disease department	All participants
11:45–12:15	Coffee break	All participants
12:15–13:00	Specifics of treatment HIV-infected women in Italy Discussion	Professor Patrick Mallon All participants
13:00–13:30	Questions and Answers	All participants
13:30–14:30	Lunch	All participants
14:30–17:00	Visit to the Clinic: Analysis of complex clinical cases of patients with HIV infection on their own practice	All participants
17:00–18:00	Questions and Answers	All participants